Upon information and belief, Defendant, Volgotanker Joint Stock Co., was and still is a foreign business entity, organized and existing pursuant to the laws of a country other than the United States, with an office and place of business located at Ul. Gorkogo 105, Samara, Russia, and at all times relevant was the owner, manager, charterer and/or operator of the M/V VOLGONEFT - 259.

5. On or about October 6, 2007, 3,300,032 metric tons of gasoil were loaded aboard the tanker-ship M/V VOLGONEFT 259, at the port of Syzran, Russia for transportation to Agio Theodrir, Greece in consideration for an agreed freight, pursuant Tanker Bill of Lading No. 33432-Y, dated October 6, 2007, and issued by the Master of the vessel.

8. On or about October 27, 2007, the vessel completed discharging the cargo, whereupon, it was ascertained that the total amount of gasoil discharged was 53,033 metric tons less than what had been loaded in Syzran, Russia.

9. The defendant, Volgotanker Joint Stock Co., and the M/V VOLGONEFT 259 failed to deliver the same amount of cargo as had been received in good order at the port of loading.

10. The shortage/loss of gasoil did not result from any act or omission on the part of the plaintiff or its assureds but, to the contrary, was caused in whole, or in part, by the negligence and/or breach of contract and/or breach of bailment of the defendant, and/or the unseaworthiness of the M/V VOLGONEFT 259.

11. As a result of the loss/shortage of gasoil, plaintiff has sustained damages in the amount of $29,000, no part of which has been paid, despite due demand.
